

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RANDALL & RICHARDS ACQUIRES THE ANDERSEN GROUP WORLDWIDE, LLC

Randall & Richards offers expanded services and experience with this acquisition

TUCSON, ARIZONA, February 1, 2014 - Randall & Richards, a commercial debt collection agency based in Tucson, Arizona, is pleased to announce the acquisition of the assets of The Andersen Group Worldwide, LLC, of Metairie, Louisiana, effective February 1, 2014. The new company will continue its operations under the name Andersen, Randall & Richards.

This acquisition allows both companies to offer additional services to their respective customer bases by expanding existing services in commercial collections, legal forwarding and debt management including aging reviews. Current clients of The Andersen Group Worldwide will experience a smooth transition with no interruption in ongoing collection activity.

Randall & Richards CEO, Randy Frazee, emphasized that the combined experience and talent of each company's employees will serve to increase the expertise offered to clients of both companies. He added that all current Andersen employees will be retained in the Metairie office, and collections will be administrated in the Randall & Richards office in Tucson once operations are consolidated.

Randall & Richards is known for its commitment to clients while utilizing innovative services and communication strategies to collect a high percentage of overdue accounts. They credit their impressive results to a combination of highly trained and committed staff members and continuous technological improvements through industry-leading software. Their persistent efforts have allowed Randall & Richards to experience tremendous growth over the past several years.
